On 5/16/2019, CPIS received a complaint of a child abuse and responded to the home located at 1401 NW 3rd Ct. Apt. 10, Fort Lauderdale, FL. Contact was made by patrol and CPI Garcia with the victim child [Redacted], who is an [Redacted] year old female. Also present at that time was Duane Fletcher, who was responsible for the child at that time.

In reference to this investigation, the allegations were that the victim child [Redacted] despite her being fully covered in scars, scabs, blisters and bruises from the whip marks.

While on scene, Ofc. Chylack conducted a Miranda interview with Rashad Forman after he arrived to the home. Post Miranda, Rashad admitted to striking the victim child with a belt but denied using the buckle area when striking her. He further acknowledged that he most likely caused injuries on the child when he was beating her and stated that he disciplined her because she was not doing well in school and was misbehaving. Rashad was shown photos of the victim's bloody scars and wounds by Ofc. Chylack, specifically of the injuries on the child's legs and he did not deny that he caused them. Rashad denied using the jump rope as the child described.

On 5/16/2019, CPI Garcia ultimately removed the victim child from the home and placed her with Child Net.

On 5/17/2019, the victim child underwent a medical exam, at NJCC with CPT medical staff Doris Shorkey. The child had an uncountable number of whip and lash marks throughout her entire body. The whip marks were consistent with being whipped with a thin cord or jump rope like object as the victim child described. The victim child had new, red lash marks, fresh scabbed lash marks that were healing from the open whip wounds and multiple healed, old lash mark like scars as well.

The victim child did not have a clear unscarred area of skin on the back of her upper thighs, when she underwent her medical exam. There was no consistent method to the whip marks and it appears as though the child was whipped to the extent that the whip marks would carry all the way around to the front of her legs. The medical staff had to group the whip marks when counting them as they could not be counted individually. The child was very specific in her account of the incidents that the leg whip marks and scars were from her brother Rashad, and the child was also specific that certain whip marks and scars on her wrists and shoulders were from her mother, Truella.

During the victim child's medical exam she expressed fear of her mother and her brother and stated that she did not feel safe in the home with them.

The CPT forensic medical exam indicated "there was evidence of physical abuse due to multiple curvilinear and loop patterned marks at different stages of healing." The medical exam also indicated that "high velocity force is necessary to cause soft tissue injury resulting in patterned and loop-patterned injuries or marks. The mother's and brother's intentional and willful act caused serious injury to the child."

On 5/20/2019, a forensic interview was conducted with the victim child [REDACTED] at NJCC with Marcelyn.

The victim child was able to be qualified and promised to tell the truth. The victim child explained that she resides with her Mom, Truella Forman and her adult brother, Rashad Forman and Rashad's father, Duane Fletcher.

The victim child explained "I got a whooping with a jump rope" she described that the "whooping" was "by my brother Rashad." The child explained she got "a whooping" because "he thought I did not do my homework." The victim child explained that her brother stated "just get your rag" and when asked by the interviewer what the rag was used for, the victim child explained "I'm supposed to put it in my mouth so nobody can hear me." The victim child explained that Rashad used a black, "grown up jump rope" to beat her on her legs. She stated that incident happened on May 14th. It is believed the incident occurred on May 13th, 2019. The child explained the incident occurred inside of her brother's room and stated she was "standing" and explained "I had to turn around and I didn't know if he was going to hit me on my legs or my arms." The victim child began to describe that Duane Fletcher, "my brother's dad" was home and "he didn't save me." The victim child explained that Duane "started laughing at her" while she was receiving the whooping and stated she deserves every "whooping" she gets.

During the Forensic, the victim child described that her mother came home and her brother, Rashad told her mother that he whooped the victim child for not doing her homework and at that time, her mother gave her a whooping as well. She stated "she gave me a whooping, it was two whoopings." The victim child stated her mother made her "hold two books in my hands and get on my knees," she explained it was "four books" in total. She showed the interviewer that she had to hold her arms straight out to the sides, with the two books in each hand and get down on her knees while she received the whooping from her mother. The victim child described that her mother used "a hanger and an extension cord to whoop her." When asked what she meant by a "hanger" the child stated "the one you use to hang your clothes with." The child then described the extension cord as "the one you plug up your phone with, it's pink, it was long too." The child described that her mother struck her with the "hanger" and the "extension cord" on her back, shoulders and also her arms. The child explained that after she received the second whooping for the day, her mother told her to go complete her homework. When the child was sitting in the kitchen, she was not doing her homework, but still put out her homework because she had in fact already completed it and had no other homework to complete. She explained that her mother told her "get back in the room" and she explained that she received a third whooping for that day. The victim child showed her injuries and showed the interviewer an injury on her forearm which she stated was from when her mother whooped her and also stated that she had more marks on her shoulders and back. She further confirmed that the injuries on her legs were sustained from the whooping from her brother with the jump rope. The victim child confirmed that she has been whooped by her brother and her mother on a previous occasions and confirmed that some of the existing scars are as a result of previous beatings from both parties.

It should be noted that the victim child described that her mother also makes her put a rag in her mouth when she recieves a whooping. The child previously described that the purpose of the rag is so that "so nobody can hear me."

The child victim was previously removed from her permanent foster mother, defendant, Truella Forman back on 2/24/2015, as there was concerns of child abuse occurring and due to a prior removal of Truella Forman's five children for child abuse back in 2015. The victim child (D.F.) was later reunited to live with foster mom, Truella Forman, on 2/4/2016 and the abuse continued.

Once reunited, CPIS received concerns of abuse on the victim child [REDACTED] on the following occasions:

On 4/16/2018, there was a CPIS complaint about the victim child being abused by her was beaten on 5/13/2019, by her adult foster brother, Rashad Forman, as discipline for being in trouble in school and not completing her homework. The child was described to also have been beaten on 5/13/2019, by her foster mother, Truella Forman, on the same date for the not completing her homework.

Officer Chylack and CPI Garcia made contact with the child on 5/16/2019, at the home. That day, the child had on long clothing concealing all of her injuries, scars and wounds.

The victim child initially denied her present injuries being from abuse. When police made contact with the child, Fletcher was present and kept interrupting the investigation. It appears as though the victim child was unable to speak comfortably or feel safe about disclosing what occurred until Fletcher was escorted out of the home by officers. Fletcher is Rashad's Forman's biological father and was in a caregiver role over the victim child and was the sole adult at the home upon officers arriving.

Once the child was alone with officers and CPI Garcia, she showed her injuries to officers and confirmed that her injuries were caused by both Rashad and Truella when they beat her on May 13th, 2019. The victim child stated that Rashad beat her with the jump rope and that Treulla beat her with a charging cord for getting a bad note home from school in her agenda.

Ofc. Chylack mirandized Truella Forman upon her arrival to the home. Truella proceeded to deny striking the child with a phone charger and denied causing any injuries to the child. Truella further denied knowledge of any of the existing injuries on the child, foster brother, resulting in an injury to her elbow.

On 5/9/2018, there was another complaint of child abuse, indicating that the mother beat the victim child with an extension cord.

On 5/24/2018, there was a CPIS complaint about the victim child being abused by the foster mother. The complaint indicated that the mother put a "hanger clip" on the child's lip because "she would not close her mouth and stop talking." The complaint indicated that the child had a swollen lip upon arriving to school and the child stated that she was forced to sleep with the clip on her lip. The mother admitted during that investigation to CPIS that she did have the child put the clip on her lip but stated it was only for a few seconds.

At that time, CPI did not find immediate danger to the child and did not conduct a removal despite the three complaints in a one month's span. At that time, both Rashad and Truella were offered services from CPIS and explained other methods of proper discipline for the victim child.

It should be noted that there was an additional report located from 2013 where Truella Forman fostered another female child. A child abuse complaint was received in reference to that child being abused but she was not removed during that investigation. BSO case number 13-11-000191.

The defendant, is in a caregiver's role over the victim child, the def. is the child's permanent foster mother and is an adult who lives in the home with the child.

Additionally, Truella Forman knowingly allowed Rashad Foreman to abuse the victim child.

The def. knowingly and willfully abused the child and while doing so, caused the child permanent disfigurement. The defendant maliciously punished the child by repeatedly battering and beating the child with objects that resulted in scarring all over the child's body.

On 5/31/2019, Truella was located at the residence and taken into custody without incident. While at the residence, Truella signed a consent to search of the residence and a phone cord, pink in color was located. The located phone cord was consistent with being extra long as the victim described and pink in color as she explained.

Truella was transported to FLPD for a Miranda interview.
